From: The Deputy Private Secretary to TRH The Prince of Wales and The Duchess of Cornwall

11th January 2006

Dear Mr. Sides,

The Prince of Wales has asked me to say how thrilled he was to see your exhibition and to receive the wonderful framed photographs on his visit to Belfast before Christmas.

The images in the triptych are especially evocative of Ireland, and it is a very special memento of an enjoyable visit. His Royal Highness was delighted to see how well you have done since applying for a Prince's Trust loan in 2003, and has asked me to send you his warmest good wishes and every encouragement with your photography business.

*Yours sincerely,
James Kidner*
